

Mother Nature Win's Bilstein Modified Lite STARS WV Mountaineer Madness

SOMERSET, PA (June 6, 2013) – With 60%-70% chance of rain forecasted for the West Virginia region Beckley and I-77 officials have postponed the STARS WV Mountaineer Madness scheduled for June 7th & 8th. STARS President of Racing Operations Bill Bauer agreed with the track promoter's decision to postpone the event. In past years we would take the chance and run the event, but now with the expense of fuel being at $4.00 a gallon for diesel, my concern is our car count. Both Beckley and I-77 are a great group to work with and we have responsibility to our race teams and promoters to insure we get the maximum car count's, Bauer stated. Track promoters are working with the STARS organization to reschedule the WV Mountaineer Madness for later this year.
